The grand jury re-assembled, and found a true bill against Samuel B Lauder, for stabbing with intent to kill. The grand jury is engaged in the con-sideration of some very important cases, which involve some peculiar interests. A great number of witnesses will probably have to be examined, and some time will perhaps elapse be-tore the action in the premises will be

We learn that a very large amount of coal is in barges at Pittsburgh awaiting water enough to go out on. If the usual full rise does not come pretty soon we fear the coal boats will be lee bound. If so, there will doubtless be a great loss among them this winter, as also much suffering down the river for the want of the usual supply of this much needed staple.

Francis Gruber, for assault and battery, was fined $20 and costs.

Jos. Young, arraigned for profune swearing, was acquitted.

Four gay young men of the city, having too much aboard to conduct thems of bar-room propriety, got into a quarrel with the bar keeper at the Grant House, which quarrel resulted in a sort of a free fight. The young men were brought before Judge Goode, and two of them were fined $20 and costs each, and the other two acquitted.
